PREFERS HANDS TO HER HUSBAND

Burdette Spurgeon Says Wife Paid Too Much Attention to Employees on Farm.

BRINGS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Sat in Dark Room With Other Men—Father Asks Custody of Child.

Because he thinks his wife paid more attention to men employed on their farm near Milroy than she did to him, Burdette Spurgeon has brought suit for divorce from his wife Prona A. Spurgeon. The complaint says they were married in April 1898, and separated July 31, last.

Mr. Spurgeon through his attorneys Megee & Kiplinger, and S. L. Trabue, alleges that his wife was entirely too friendly with men employed on the farm, and that she would often sit with them in a dark room although he objected to it. He further says that when he threatened to discharge the men who were "keeping company" with Mrs. Spurgeon that she said "If you fire one you will fire two," meaning he says that she would go with the farm hand, in preference to staying with him. He alleges cruel treatment in other ways also.

The plaintiff asks the court for the custody of the only child, Russell Everett Spurgeon, ten years old.

STRIKES A WOMAN WITH HIS FISTS

The Charge Which is Made Against Charles Mullen of Laurel, Who is Arrested.

ARGUMENT OVER CHILDREN

Charles Mullen of Laurel got into some trouble with Mrs. William Wilson about children Monday evening and Mullen assaulted Mrs. Wilson with his fists. He knocked out several of her teeth and loosened others. The woman is reported in a serious condition from personal injuries and from fright. Mullen was arrested by the town marshal and held in the calaboose till Tuesday morning. Prosecutor Wiles was sent for but could not go down until Tuesday afternoon. Sentiment in Laurel is said to be practically all against Mullen and there is much sympathy for Mrs. Wilson. While the charge may only be plain assault and battery every effort it is said, will be made to see that he is properly punished.

WATSON IS MAKING BIG HIT

Draws Record Breaking Crowd at Chautauqua in Illinois.

Word has been received here from the Chautauqua management at Hoopston, Illinois, that James E. Watson has made the greatest hit of any man who has spoken at the Chautauqua there this season. The largest crowd of the season heard his address Sunday afternoon; and the report says that an audience never was better pleased than it was. Mr. Watson is on a three weeks tour now and is receiving the top notch price paid by Chautauquas.

HEARS OF MOTHER'S DEATH

Clarence Cross Received News of Her Demise Last Night.

Mrs. A. B. Cross of Winton Place, Ohio, mother of Clarence Cross of this city, died last night at eleven o'clock at her home. She is survived by her husband and son, who received the sad news last night. Mr. and Mrs. Cross and daughter left this morning for Winton Place. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

GOES TO WEDDING OF FRIEND OF SEA

Rev. J. F. Cowling Officiates at the Nuptials of Man he Met on Voyage to England.

CEREMONY HELD AT CHICAGO

Rev. J. F. Cowling, who has been spending several days at Winona, went from there to Chicago Tuesday to officiate at the wedding of a friend he met on his trip to England last summer. The friend is also a minister and on the return voyage from England the two became good friends. However, Mr. Cowling was much surprised when he received a letter from his friend requesting him to preside at the wedding. Mr. Cowling will return home from Chicago, and is expected here this evening.

YOUNG WOMAN IS CORONER'S CLERK

Miss Jeanne Bishop Makes Good But Thinks One Experience is Enough For Her.

DID NOT KNOW SHE GOT PAY

There's absolutely nothing wrong about a woman serving as coroner's clerk, but it's just a bit unusual. When Coroner W. S. Coleman received the call to Mays Sunday, the men who usually act in that capacity were not available. Coroner Coleman then asked Miss Jeanne Bishop to serve and she consented. She made a good clerk, but she says the work left no pleasant memories. She did not know she was entitled to a fee of $2 until she was back home. However, she is not looking for another chance of the kind to earn $2.

BLACKSMITH FOR 25 YEARS

Frank Smith of Morristown is Dead After Long Illness.

Frank Smith is dead at his home in Morristown. He was well known in this county as he had been in the blacksmith business there for twenty-five years and was noted as a horse-shoer, men often going many miles to have their horses feet cared for by him or under his direction. He had been ill for several months and his death was expected. Mr. Smith was a prominent Odd Fellow.

 7:30—Musical Prelude, Glazier Jubilees.
 8:00—Address, Dr. Stanley Krebs.

Possibly the biggest day in the history of the Rush county chautauqua is Indiana Day, which included the program this afternoon and the one to be given tonight. The Indiana celebrities are the guests of Rushville people today and are here to appear on the program.

The great variety of talent offers an interesting and well-balanced program, such that is seldom to be had on any chautauqua program. The members of the audience who like to be entertained can enjoy a portion of the program and those who care for a real intellectual feast may also find it a source of pleasure to attend.

There seems to be no doubt that Kin Hubbard (Abe Martin) will draw a large crowd from the country district. During the trips of the "flying squadron" over the county the mention of the name of Abe Martin always brought cheers from the crowd which signifies that he is easily the most popular number on the program.

Mrs. Juliette Strauss, who is on the program, is well known here. She has won much recognition in the literary field in her work as country contributor in the Ladies Home Journal. Mrs. Jesse Nay Wagoner, who is to appear in several readings, comes from Knightstown and has

INDIANAPOLIS MAN IN LEAD

First Entrant in Motorcycle Endurance Run Reached Here at 3:01 This Afternoon.

LARGE CROWDS SEE FIENDS

Riders Worn and Weary After Their Run of 150 Miles From Columbus, Ohio.

EIGHT LEADERS.
 1. McCarver, Indianapolis, machine Excelsior.
 2. R. W. Dussell, Aurora, Thor.
 3. W. J. Teubner, Pottstown, Merckel.
 4. P. B. Whitney, Cleveland, Indian.
 5. L. J. Mueller, Cleveland, Indian.
 6. B. A. Swenson, Providence, R. I., Indian.
 7. A. H. Peters, Buffalo, Kiefler.
 8. Joseph DeSalor, Chicago, Excelsior.
 9. W. P. White, Pottstown, Merckel.

The first motorcycle in the endurance run of 364 miles from Cleveland to Indianapolis reached this city at 3:01. The machine was an Excelsior, ridden by McCarver of Indianapolis. The last of the eight leaders reached here at 3:10. Other machines passed through the city at intervals of a few minutes.

Up until four o'clock this afternoon fifty-six machines had registered here. Two went through without stopping.

A register station was established in front of the Knecht Clothing company's store and the men in the run registered at this station. The first riders asked for a paper to register, and an improvised one was supplied. The pathfinder which went through here two weeks ago told the managers of the store to have a paper ready.

Many of the riders said this was not on their list and some asked to register. However, the crowd stopped all of them, official or unofficial.

A large crowd was in the business district to witness the run and there was much interest in the event.

The run started at Cleveland yesterday at 6 o'clock and the entrants stopped at Columbus, Ohio, last night after covering a distance of 174 miles. Seventy-six were still in the running at Columbus last night. They left there this morning at 6 o'clock and were at Richmond at noon today. At Connersville a hill climbing contest was a feature of the run.

The men were tired and worn when they reached here this afternoon after having traveled 150 miles. Most of them stopped only long enough to register, but some of them took gasoline here.

The route through this city was in Second street to Buena Vista avenue, from there to Third street and out Third street to the Indianapolis pike. The leader here this afternoon expected to reach the end of the run about 4:15 this afternoon. The next register station was at Reedville.

NOT WYATT BUT NEIGHBOR

Milroy People Mistaken About the Escapade Saturday Night.

It was not Elvis Wyatt who struck John Rawlings at Milroy Saturday night. Instead it was a neighbor. Mr. Wyatt has been caused much inconvenience by the mistake and has proved to Milroy people that "he is not the man." It was the general impression that he was the one who had the trouble and now people who accused him unjustly are begging his pardon.

STOLEN HORSE IS RECOVERED HERE

Greensburg Livery Stable Proprietor Claims Outfit Found Near City by Officer Pea.

WAS STOLEN SATURDAY NIGHT

James McCracken, one of the proprietors of the Big Four livery stable at Greensburg, was here yesterday and claimed the horse found by Officer William Pea a few miles south of the city Monday. The horse, hitched to a buggy, was discovered grazing at the roadside.

By comparing descriptions it was found that the horse was the same one stolen from the Greensburg stable Saturday night and the proprietors telephoned here that they would be here to claim the outfit. Mr. McCracken came yesterday and drove the horse back to Greensburg.

HERNLY IS BEHIND A BIG BOOM DEAL

Arranges For Location of Large Steel Mill Which Will Employ About 1000 Men.

PLANS 1000 ACRES LOT SALE

Concerning the work of Charles S. Hernly, who may come to Rushville to assist in the boom the Indianapolis Star has the following in a dispatch from Evansville:

Options have been secured by the West Side Business Association of this city on a large steel mill, employing 1000 men, which is now in the Pittsburg district. It is expected that the definite announcement of the establishment of the mill here can be made within two weeks.

Charles S. Hernly, former Republican State chairman, of New Castle is the agent for the Pittsburg plant. He has contracted to buy 1000 acres of ground west of the city part of which will be platted for residence purposes, while the remainder will be used by the mill.

Mr. McManus is still very sore and is unable to be very brisk in his walking about Gings. He is thankful for his fortunate escape, however, and is willing to take it easy for a while.

MASON MIXES HUMOR AND FACT

Substitute For Senator Dolliver and Large Audience Have Jolly Good Time at Chautauqua.

SCORES THE MORMON RELIGION

Says it is a Disgrace to Country—Says Senate Rules Should be Amended.

Former Senator Billy Mason of Illinois was a substitute for Senator Dolliver, who was unable to fill his engagement at the chautauqua last night, and Mason was an agreeable substitute. He admitted that since the chautauqua management was looking for a big man to fill the vacancy he filled the bill—said he weighed 100 pounds more than Senator Dolliver. He was also willing to concede that he could make a better speech than Mr. Dolliver, although he said he would not say such a thing if Dolliver were on the platform. He laughed and everybody else laughed and the audience, as well as Mr. Mason had a good time.

The speaker told some of his experiences in Washington, a lot of good stories, and sandwiched in some good sound advice on the side. He gloried in the fact that he could never be elected to any office in Indiana, although he thought it was a misfortune for the State. He was glad because he said he could make most any statement without fear of being accused of trying to make friends for political purposes. He said a lot of things about Presidents he had known and had the highest words of praise for the late President Harrison. He also told several amusing incidents of his association with President Cleveland, and especially in which he was taken for the President.

When Mr. Mason first went to the Senate he had an experience which he will never forget. Senator Chandler approached the new comer, who was a stranger to the Maine senator, and asked in a rather conciliatory tone: "Has the gentleman the privilege of the floor?"

Mr. Mason saw that he was not recognized, and he replied: "Well, Mr. Chandler I think I have and I am on the same pay roll with you. More than that, if everything is on the square I draw the same salary as you do. I am Mason from Illinois." He and Senator Chandler were great friends after that.

Mr. Mason touched on the rules of the Senate and lamented the fact that many good bills had died there simply because one or two men had opposed them. He urged that as soon as possible the rules be amended and that senators be made responsible to the people more directly.

"At present," he said, "four or five men in the minority can defeat the will of the people, who hold the majority responsible."

He gave considerable attention to the Mormon question, and brought out in strong terms the fact that Senator Smoot subscribed to a creed which was a disgrace to the standard of the American family. "And that man helps make the laws that govern my family and yours," he added. The reason is simple. Both of the great parties are afraid to tackle this question for fear they will lose the electoral votes of three States, which the Mormons control.

"We have no right to criticize customs in Turkey," he continued, "for right here in the United States we permit polygamy which is as much a disgrace to the standard of womanhood and manhood."

AND THEREBY HANGS A TALE

Ambitious Wall Street Clerk in the Tombs.

F. AUGUSTUS HEINZE NIPPED

With Desk Room in a Note Broker's Office a Young Clerk Carried Out a Deal Which Led to His Incarceration on a Larceny Charge, While One-Time Copper King Wants to Know How His Valuable Copper Stock Got in the Wrong Hands—Mr. Jerome Takes Charge of the Case.

New York, Aug. 11.—An ambitious young financier, Donald L. Persch, whose offices constituted merely desk room in a down-town note broker's office, is in the Tombs in default of $50,000 bail, and thereby hangs a tale of tangled finance through which somebody in Wall street nipped F. Augustus Heinze, the one-time copper king, for $40,000. Persch is specifically charged with the larceny of $40,000, a profit obtained by the sale of 15,600 shares of Ohio Copper common, and 4,600 shares of Davis-Daly copper common, which an agent for Heinze placed with the Windsor Trust company of this city as security for a loan of $50,000. In some manner as yet unexplained, the stock was not held by the bank, but was turned over to a clerk acting for Persch and at the latter's orders thrown on the curb market and sold for approximately $90,000. How Persch obtained the capital to carry through the deal and why the stock was relinquished by the trust company are points yet to be cleared up.

After his arrest Persch intimated that there were men "higher up" in the transaction, but he refused to say more, upon the advice of counsel. He was arraigned before a magistrate and after unsuccessful efforts of his lawyer to have bail reduced to $25,000, was committed to the Tombs. His examination was set for Friday.

In opposing the reduction of bail, Assistant District Attorney Nott, who is conducting the case, said to the court:

"There are other powerful people behind this man, your honor. They will put up for his appearance, and he should have no difficulty furnishing $50,000 bail. On August 6th," he continued, "this man had $45,000 in his possession. Fifty thousand dollars is not too much."

The court agreed with him.

Persch was arrested on the strength of statements made by John Sherwood, another note broker, who was called to the district attorney's office. He said that at Persch's request he procured securities from the trust company after having obtained the $50,000 for the purpose from L. J. Fields and company, dealers in curb stocks. He thought the transaction entirely legitimate and was ready to act for a percentage. He exhibited orders from Persch to redeem the securities and to put them on the market. Three hundred dollars was paid to Fields & Co. for the use of the money. L. J. Fields of the firm maintains that their part in the affair was a regular business transaction.

The foregoing features of the case seem to be plain enough, but behind them is the mystery of how Persch knew when and where M. M. Joyce, representing F. Augustus Heinze, placed the securities. It is considered coincidental by the district attorney's office that Persch had his desk room in the offices of W. L. Clark, a note broker, who first directed Mr. Joyce to the Windsor Trust company for the purpose of obtaining the loan.

While there is nothing to indicate that the bank is criminally responsible in any way, Mr. Joyce says that it was stipulated when the loan was made that the stock was to be pinned to his note and retained. Shortly after, however, the certificates appeared on the curb, and an investigation was begun. The trust company says in its defense that it was acting merely as an agent in placing the loan; and this agent now appears to have been Sherwood, representing young Persch, who in turn intimates that he was acting for someone above him. But Mr. Joyce is emphatic in saying that he had never seen Sherwood to his knowledge. Stirling Birmingham, chief of the loan department of the trust company, acted as intermediary between Joyce and the lender, while Joyce was under the impression that he was getting the money direct from the bank.

District Attorney Jerome has taken active charge of the case, and other arrests may be made. Charles Katz, treasurer of the Eastern Brewing company of Williamsburg, and Henry Uhlman, a business associate, were among the other witnesses examined at the district attorney's office. Uhlman admitted that he made out a note for $50,000 in Persch's favor, but did not know to what use it was put. He was to receive $266 for it.

Persch, according to the police, has been arrested twice before, once for forgery on a charge made at the request of his father, and another time in connection with taking subscriptions for an ice fund. Both charges were dropped.

CASTRO GETS TASTE OF OWN MEDICINE

What Caracas Did to His Five Millions Was Plenty.

Caracas, Aug. 11.—General Cipriano Castro's much-heralded appeal to the Venezuelan congress, which after being read in joint session, was referred by Castro's friends in that body to a special committee for report, has died a natural death in the committee room, and instead of the desired report the curious ex-presidential message has been archived. Thus a last spasmodic effort of the few friends of the late dictator to awaken some sentiment for their fallen idol has failed, and the expatriate in Santander has not even had the satisfaction of having his words reproduced in the Venezuelan newspapers, as must have been his wish.

The systematic spoliation of the fortune which Castro left behind him in Venezuela has proceeded with such gigantic strides that after the first six months the five million dollars of known assets have been almost totally wiped out. The method by which one million dollars of Castro's property was reduced to $50,000 and this paltry remainder then taken away from him, will probably be a revelation even to Castro himself, who is now having a taste of the same medicine which he administered to the Venezuelan people for so many years.

Castro owned 1,000,000 shares of cigarette stock which had been given to him as his share in the promotion of the cigarette trust. A few weeks ago the directors of the cigarette company sold the $5,000,000 concern to a private individual, Senor Garcia Guerra, for $250,000, or just 5 per cent of its capitalized value, and notwithstanding that on the same day of the sale the shares were quoted on the exchange at 25 per cent premium. The next step was the formation of a new company which took in all the old stockholders except Castro. Then there was issued an order by the commercial court to have the $50,000, which corresponded to the 5 per cent purchase price of the Castro stock, deposited in the Bank of Venezuela to the order of whoever might be the holder of this block of stock. So in one day $1,000,000 of good money became $50,000. But the worst was yet to come. This $50,000 awakened the cupidity of more than one lawyer, so it was immediately attached by individuals who have law suits pending against Castro for the recovery of properties and damages.

The sequel of this story of "high finance" was the sudden arrival a few days ago of a German citizen named Theodore Hauer with the million dollars of cigarette shares in his pocket, and he claims that these belong to him by virtue of purchase from General Castro. He has engaged eminent counsel and will begin action against the promoters of the alleged illegal reorganization which "froze out" these shares of his.

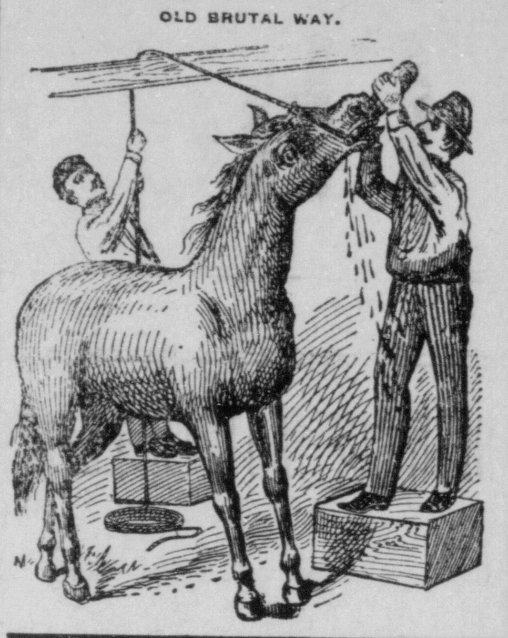

What has been done with Castro's cigarette stock is an exact repetition of the process used to oust him from the company which controls the monopoly of navigation of the Orinoco river and by which his large block of stock was made worthless.

"Time's Flight Turned Backward" SAGE AND SULPHUR

Made Her look Twenty Years Younger

READ MRS. HERRICK'S SWORN STATEMENT

STATE OF NEW YORK } ss. Rochester, N. Y.
County of Monroe }

Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a school girl I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair, that was so plentiful, rich and glossy, that it was the envy of many of my young schoolmates, and attracted the attention and remarks of strangers. After I was married and as I grew older, my hair commenced to come out just a little at first, but gradually as time passed it came out more and more, and began to turn gray. I was induced by many good reports heard of Sage and Sulphur, to try a bottle. My hair was quite gray and thin on top when I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and you may imagine my satisfaction when I found that it was fast coming back to its natural condition, becoming thicker, darker, smoother and glossier than it had been for a long time. I continued the use of Sage and Sulphur and my hair is now in a splendid condition, as heavy and as dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. From my experience I believe it is one's own fault if they lose their hair, or let it get gray or harsh. It is now four years since I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and still use it, and my hair still keeps thick, dark, smooth and glossy.

Sworn to before me this 11th day of July, 1909.

Dog Days! Here's How Term Started

It's dog days!

And these two words stands for one of the biggest hoaxes ever sprung on the world.

Few persons who call this hot weather dog days really know how the term started. The old Greeks, whose pet Paris poodles weren't as good natured as ours, paid more attention to stars than they did to spaniels.

So they let astronomy go to the dogs when they called the brightest star in the sky the dog star. Its other name is Sirius. The Greeks preferred to call it the dog star because the constellation that Sirius belonged to, looked to them like one of Jupiter's pet canines running a Marathon all over Mount Olympus after a piece of beef. Steak was high in those days, too.

This bright bow-wow star arises with the sun over the horizon in August, so this time of year is dog days. Dog star days would be better.

Mad dogs cause more trouble in hot weather than in winter, and in some remarkable way people get to believe that the dog star really made dogs go mad.

As soon as the July leaf is torn off the calendars and August enters the face of a dog rises up like a mind ghost. Then people begin to watch every restless dog that gets in their way, even if he is only chasing the butcher's wagon with fond, but vain hope.

RESOLUTION TO IMPROVE NINTH Street from Sexton street to the Lake Erie & Western Railway, on the North Side of Said Street.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Rushville, Indiana, that it is necessary to improve Ninth street on the north side thereof, from the west side of Sexton street to the Lake Erie & Western railway in said city by constructing a cement sidewalk, five feet wide, together with curb and gutter. Said sidewalk and gutter to be made of cement, and the said curb to be of stone, all to conform to ordinance No. forty-one of said city. The Common Council will meet at the council chamber on the 20th day of August, 1909, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. to hear all persons interested as to the necessity of said improvement.

I, Samuel G. Gregg, city clerk of said city, hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was passed by the Common Council of said city on the 3d day of August, 1909.

SAMUEL G. GREGG,
D-Aug4and11 City Clerk.

Making the Most of Salt Lake Outing.

THE ENCAMPMENT A HOLIDAY

Splashing in the Great Salt Sea and Rambling Amid Historic Scenes, the Veterans Say That "If Amusement Interferes With Business, Cut Out the Business"—None the Less, Business of the Great Encampment Is Proceeding Apace—Though VanSant Seems in Lead, Ketcham's Friends Are Working Hard.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 11.—By a strong element at the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, sentiment is regarded as favorable to Samuel R. VanSant for commander-in-chief. Atlantic City also seems in the lead as the place for holding the 1910 encampment. Nevertheless the friends of Judge William A. Ketcham and the advocates of St. Louis will not concede defeat. The election will be held tomorrow.

The convention seekers and supporters of candidates are working hard today, but the thousands of old soldiers in the city have more important matters to attend to. "If amusement interferes with our business, cut out the business," is the motto of the veterans, and they are living up to it. The encampment is, first of all, a holiday, and the visitors do not allow their dignity as warriors to spoil their splashing in the lake, their rambling amid historic scenes and their postcard service to distant friends.

The Association of Union Ex-Prisoners of War held their business session with National Commander Harry White of Pennsylvania presiding. Executive councils of the Woman's Relief Corps and other auxiliary bodies also devoted a part of the day to routine labor.

Under the vast dome of the Mormon tabernacle the Grand Army and all the auxiliary organizations were welcomed to Utah by Governor William Spry and to Salt Lake City by Mayor John S. Barnsford last night. Commander-in-Chief Henry Nevius replied.

Campfires were held at the assembly hall and the armory. These were followed by a gorgeous display of fireworks on Ensign peak, the mountain rising 1,200 feet at the northern edge of the city, upon which the Mormon pioneers planted their flag at the first settlement of Utah.

Uncle Sam Gets After Another So-Called "Cancer Cure."

Washington, Aug. 11.—The post-office department has issued a fraud order against the Dr. Currey Cancer Cure company of Lebanon, O. This company, according to the postoffice inspectors, advertised "a discovery that has startled the medical world. It is guaranteed to cure the disease in ten or fifteen days." Twenty-five dollars was the sum demanded for a complete cure. The department had the "treatment" of the concern analyzed by the agricultural department chemists, who found the medicine furnished to contain "merely a certain amount of 'dope,' which might in some instances render temporary relief from pain."

ELEPHANTS ON RAMPAGE

Kansas Town Terrorized When Circus Herd Breaks Loose.

Clay Center, Kan., Aug. 11.—The people of this town were terrorized for two hours by eleven elephants which escaped from a show and stampeded through the streets. The trouble started when a small dog bit at the heels of one of the elephants. The beast at once began to trumpet and, breaking from its keeper, ran away. The other ten elephants followed. Before the elephants were finally captured a showman was knocked from a horse and seriously hurt. During the excitement the people of the town kept off the streets.

Still Talking It Over.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Peace negotiations in the street railway situation in this city drag. Both sides are fighting to get all the advantages they can out of the situation. Nothing has arisen so far to indicate that the trouble will not be settled amicably within a few days.

Japs Seeking Re-Employment.

Honolulu, Aug. 11.—That the prolonged strike of Japanese plantation laborers is a thing of the past is shown by the fact that practically all of the strikers are now seeking re-employment.

Disaster to Fishing Fleet.

Tokio, Aug. 11.—A dispatch from Kobe says that a coral fishing fleet was caught in a squall off Kobe and 457 of the fishermen were drowned.

EXTRAORDINARY HAIR TONIC

It Won't Grow Hair on Bald Heads.

Unlike all other hair restorers, Parisian Sage won't grow hair on bald heads. Neither will it grow hair on china eggs, door knobs or hitching posts.

One claim is about as sensible as the other.

If your head is bald and you want to cover it with hair, get a wig.

Parisian Sage, the quick-acting hair rejuvenator, is of no use to bald headed people; but for people who have thin hair, falling hair and dandruff, and where the bald spot is just beginning to show, there is nothing in this world that will give such satisfactory results as Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by F. B. Johnson & Co. to drive out dandruff and stop falling hair in two weeks or money back. It stops itching scalp in two days, and keeps the scalp cool and free from odors in warm weather.

There is nothing on earth that will so quickly turn dull, faded hair into lustrous and luxuriant hair as Parisian Sage.

Try a bottle of Parisian Sage at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s at our risk. Use it for a week, and you will have no use for the ordinary tonics. Parisian Sage is delightfully perfumed, free from grease and stickiness, and a large bottle costs but 50 cents. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every oottle.

BY THE WAYSIDE

It formerly looked odd to see a woman running an automobile, but now it appears to be quite the fad and "very stylish." It's a common occurrence to see tourists passing through the city with women chauffeurs and the ease with which they handle the big touring cars is surprising. However, when anything goes wrong the fair ones resign in favor of the sterner sex, as they do not pretend to know anything about the mechanical part of the engines.

Are the outward marks of your intellectual capacities. When you speak do you show everyone that you are educated, cultured and refined, or do you simply publish to the world the fact that you are a person of only ordinary intelligence and average culture? In other words

DO YOU SPEAK ENGLISH CORRECTLY?

In this progressive age, the ability to read, write and speak English correctly is the greatest asset anyone can possess. It adds to one's money-making possibilities and furnishes a noticeable final touch to one's personality. You are the best judge of how you stand, and if you are not satisfied do not put it off until it is too late. There is a popular, interesting and even fascinating way to polish up your English. You will not have to wade through "dry," uninteresting text-books. The magazine, "Correct English," and the book, "The Art of Conversation," will give you invaluable aid. See following special offer:

SEND 10 CENTS today for a sample copy of Correct English. For this money we will also send you a copy of the premium edition of "The Art of Conversation," which gives twelve invaluable rules to the person who would know how to be interesting in conversation. INDIANA DAY IS NOW A REALITY many friends in this city, where she has visited on numerous occasions. Mrs. Wagoner, who is very talented, is expected to make a good impression. W. W. Pfrimmer, the poet from Kankakee, will make his first appearance here in some of his own compositions. Alonzo Rice, the Shelby county poet, who is gradually climbing on the top in his line of work, is also expected to be on the program.

Ex-Senator Mason of Illinois substituted last night for Senator Dolliver, who was unable to be present on account of illness and did it in a very pleasing manner, too. His lecture was probably more appreciated by the audience than any other man who has yet been on the platform this year. His manner of address was such that he soon won a place in the hearts of the crowd.

Dr. A. J. Kinneman, who is here as an instructor in the teachers' institute, made an address before the chautauqua audience yesterday afternoon. His lecture was of an educational nature and proved to be very high class. His work in the institute has received very favorable comment and is said to be very helpful. He comes from Bowling Green, Ky., where he is interested in school work.

The Chicago Ladies Orchestra continues to fascinate the crowds with their music and many regular attendants at the assembly have expressed much regret that the length of stay of the young women does not continue longer than tonight. The great variety of their selections and the manner in which they execute them is wonderful, and they never fail to be greeted with prolonged rounds of applause at the close of each piece. Their tone coloring is superb and the perfect harmony in which they play is very charming. Their work by far surpasses that of any musical organization which ever appeared on the local chautauqua platform. The Glazier Jubilees come tomorrow for the remainder of the meetings.

Dr. Stanley Krebs, of Philadelphia, who comes for two lectures tomorrow, has a national reputation for his work on the lyceum platform. He has succeeded in popularizing the subject of psychology as no other person has ever been able to do. It is the natural inclination of an audience to feel that this is so heavy a subject for a warm August day, but it is said that Dr. Krebs' lectures are extremely interesting as well as instructive. He has a marvelous ability for entertaining a popular audience with his address. Arrangements have been made for Dr. Krebs to make a short talk tonight.

Heard While Scenes are Being Shifted

Several boys have been playing with the electric lights on the grounds each evening and causing much trouble. The grounds police succeeded in catching one of the principal offenders yesterday evening and turned him loose only after he had promised not to repeat the trick. They have promised to deal summarily with any more similar offenses.

One of the very attractive features of this year's assembly is the cornet solos by Harry Lucas every evening from the top of a tall tree as the crowds are gathering. This is one number of the program which never receives any applause but Mr. Lucas is in such a position that he can look over that.

Misses Millie, Lulu and Emma Peters are camping on the grounds this year. They are school teachers and are combining pleasure with duty by attending both the chautauqua and the institute.

Lanterns are often brought into play on campers row at night after the electric lights have been turned off.

The Chicago Ladies Orchestra will go from here to Wabash tomorrow to furnish the music for the Chautauqua there during the remaining four days of their assembly. Mr. Shaw, who has the general management of the local Chautauqua, also has charge of the Wabash meeting.

The Glazier Jubilee Singers will come tomorrow for the remaining four days of the assembly. They have a reputation that is hard to excel. They are said to possess ability for producing musical harmony that is peculiar to none only their people.

Dr. Stanley Krebs of Philadelphia came today from Wabash, where he delivered two lectures at the Chautauqua. He made a very decided impression there and proved to be a very popular number. The management has made arrangements for him to make a short address tonight.

Dr. Krebs, who speaks here this evening and twice Thursday, will return to Wabash Friday to fill the vacancy made by the fact that Senator Dolliver had to cancel his engagement there. This speaks well for Mr. Krebs as he is asked to return to fill a big man's place even after he has appeared there.

Kin Hubbard alias Abe Martin arrived this afternoon to fill his engagement on the chautauqua program. The committee who met the celebrity at the train were much disappointed when he appeared in ordinary dress, as they expected him to wear his Abe Martin costume with the leather boots and slouch hat. Mr. Hubbard will be on tonight for a few sketches and characteristic drawings.

Alonzo Rice, the Shelby county bard came this morning to add his share to Indiana day at the Chautauqua. He is prepared to be on the stage and give some of his short poems.

Ellen Stone, who lectured at the Chautauqua has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Chadwick in North Harrison street since Sunday. She remained here purposely to meet Senator Dolliver, but was disappointed on account of his failure to come. Mrs. Chadwick entertained informally for her guest today. Miss Stone leaves in the morning for St. Paul, Minn., where she has an engagement.

Love the Conqueror

The following poem by Alonzo Rice appeared in the Red Magazine in London:

Dark around the wave were flowing
'Neath a sullen, stormy sky;
Culls their underwings were snowing,
Wheeling near with eerie cry.
How the bitter truth oppressed me,
That with daylight's risen beams,
In your arms, I should not rest me,
Waking from the sweetest dreams.

Love, the conqueror, brings back
Sailor-lads to arms so true;
Dawning days of cloudless hue,
In the ocean's stormy track.

Came ere long fond recollections,
As the cloud-rack rolled away;
Fairest were the bright reflections
Mirrored in the peaceful bay;
While across the sunlit distance,
Homing sails were gaily spread;
Over winds' and waves' resistance
Love, the sea gives up its dead.

AUTOMOBILE HITS A BOY'S BICYCLE

Machines Get Dodging Habit and a Minister's Runabout Runs Into a Wheel Standing Near.

ONE DOLLAR SETTLES IT ALL

There was dodging of automobiles, and a bicycle was damaged in an accident at Second and Morgan streets. Lew Oneal was coming down Morgan street in his automobile and Rev. Mr. Morrow of Arlington was coming down Second street in his runabout. In some way the machines did not agree on which way to turn. Although there was no danger of a collision Mr. Morrow, before he could control his machine, ran into Gibson Ross' bicycle which was standing against the curb stone. The bicycle was slightly damaged and Mr. Morrow gave young Ross $1 and everybody was satisfied.

PEACH CROP LOOKS GOOD

Growers Are Now More Optimistic In Their Opinion.

Every indication points to a good peach crop in the Lake Erie and Lake Erie and Michigan peach belts. Some time ago it was feared climatic conditions had curtailed the yield but recently an improvement in weather has caused the growers to look upon the situation in a more optimistic light. Good rains have helped the fruit immensely and if an occasional shower falls during August and September, a record output may be expected. Dealers say the quality of Elberta preaches from Georgia will be much better than the earlier varieties.

CARL MORRIS AT HOME.

FIRST SUICIDE'S FUNERAL IN YEARS

Services Over Body of Miss Carrie Moore, Who Killed Herself at Mays.

BOUGHT ACID AT NEW CASTLE

For the first time in many years a suicide's funeral was held in Spiceland Tuesday morning. It was that of Miss Carrie Moore of Mays, who drank carbolic acid some time Saturday night and was found dead in bed Sunday morning. The service was held at the Friends church, which was filled to overflowing.

Miss Moore purchased the acid at New Castle while visiting a relative there a short time ago. She was a sister of Mrs. Marion True of Spiceland. J. R. Moore, the father of the unfortunate woman, committed suicide about a year ago by hanging himself.

POISONED ABOUT FACE AND HANDS

Mrs. Mary J. Conner is Suffering Much Pain From Ivy Poisoning.

SHE WILL RETURN HOME SOON

Mrs. Mary J. Conner, formerly of near Andersonville, but who has been living here for a few months with her daughter, Mrs. Owen Kincaid, became severely poisoned with ivy the other day at Georgetown, O., where she has been visiting relatives. The poison extends over her face and hands and is causing her much pain. Mrs. Kincaid will go after her in a few days and accompany her home.

SAY LANDSCAPE IS VERY MONOTONOUS

A Party of Motorcyclists Passed Through Here This Morning Enroute to Indianapolis.

TO ATTEND MOTORCYCLE RACES

A party of motorcyclists passed Indianapolis to attend the motorcycle races there this week. There were ten in the party and they hailed from three different States. Seven of the number live in Pittsburg, Pa., two in Kentucky, and one in this State. They came from Richmond by way of Connersville this morning and stopped here a short time before going on to Indianapolis. They complained of the landscape being so monotonous on account of the lack of hills and mountains.

People are United and Boom Will Bring Results

Paper by J. H. Scholl Who Won Third Prize in Improvement Contest

The city of Rushville is worthy of the very best efforts of all of her citizens. It has many advantages superior to cities of its own size, but some united work along the following lines will easily place Rushville among the very first and most progressive cities of the State.

In unity and in organization there is strength. We have the basis now for an organization which will improve Rushville wonderfully. The people are now united as never before in the promotion of the Rush County Chautauqua. The people of the adjoining towns are flocking to our city to enjoy the rare treats made possible by the united efforts of some seventy public spirited citizens. This is only indicative of what a permanent RUSHVILLE COMMERCIAL CLUB can do for us. During or immediately after the Chautauqua a monster mass meeting should be planned and necessary preliminary work done to insure an enthusiastic meeting of all classes of our citizens including the ladies. Let there be a program and reception befitting the occasion and the purpose. Then let the RUSHVILLE COMMERCIAL CLUB by a united citizenship plan and secure for Rushville:

1. Two or three substantial factories added to our list.
2. Free Public Library for the City.
3. Encourage local capitalists to invest in factories here.
4. Organize a Rushville Ladies' Improvement Club.

Now is a time for all good citizens to come to the Chautauqua and get the spirit of unity and improvement and we shall have no difficulty in organizing and securing the benefits named above. The Chautauqua is doing remarkable work for Rushville and we should not allow the season to pass before we reap some of its unifying principle in making improvements for our beautiful city.

BREAKS HIS ARM IN FALL

John P. McCarty, Victim of Accident While Loading Lumber.

John P. McCarty was the victim of a painful accident yesterday while at work loading lumber in a woods, north of Gings. While tying a boom he slipped and fell from the load and his arm was broken at the wrist. The injury is painful, but not serious. R. W. H. Smith attended him.

The book which is the very best seller in this country, outside the Bible, has been the humble Webster's Spelling Book, it being computed that upward of 30,000,000 copies of this work have been disposed of in the United States.

OBJECTED TO HER VISITS TO PARENTS

Mrs. Pearl Crim Institutes Divorce Proceedings Against Her Husband, Frank Crim.

SHE ASKS FOR ALIMONY OF $100

Mrs. Pearl Crim has instituted divorce proceedings against her husband, Frank Crim, of this city. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment in that he was cross and called her names. She says he objected to her visits to her parents and accused her of being extravagant. The complaint sets forth that although the wife made money by washing and sewing her husband said she should give more toward the support of the family.

Mrs. Crim asks the custody of the two children, Owen Crim, 4, and Marjorie, 2 years old. She asks that the court order the husband to pay her $2.50 a week for the support of the children, and she demands $100 alimony. Megee & Kiplinger are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

RUSHVILLE WOMAN TO BE LIBRARIAN

Mrs. Ora F. Wilson Take Charge of Department at Hamilton College at Lexington, Ky.

IS ACTIVE IN LITERARY WORK

Mrs. Ora F. Wilson has been selected as librarian of Hamilton College at Lexington, Ky. This is one of the best girls' schools in the Blue Grass State, and the position is one much sought after.

This position is a recognition of Mrs. Wilson's activity in literary circles. At present she is a member of the library board in this city, and last year was president of the Monday Circle. She was appointed to the library board for three years by Judge Sparks. She was largely instrumental in the organization of Mrs. May Donan's literary class here. Mrs. Wilson will move to Lexington in a few weeks and her daughter, Miss Marion will enter Hamilton College.

The Man From Brodne's

By GEORGE BARR M'CUTCHEON

Copyright, 1908, by Dodd, Mead & Co.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

THE PERSIAN ANGEL.

THE man called Abou suddenly leaped to his feet and, with the cry of an eager animal, sprang to her side. His arms closed about her slender figure with the unmistakable lust of the victor. A hoarse, inarticulate cry of rage burst from Deppingham's lips. His figure shot out through the air and down the short slope with the rush of an infuriated beast. Even as the astonished Abou dropped his struggling burden to meet the attack of the unexpected deliverer he was felled to the earth by a mighty blow from the rifle which his assailant swung swift and true. His skull was crushed as if it were an eggshell.

He was felled to the earth by a mighty blow.

Lady Agnes struggled to her feet, wide eyed, half crazed by the double assault. The next instant she fell forward upon her face, dead to all that was to follow in the next few minutes.

There was no struggle. Chase and Selim were upon the stupefied islanders before they could move, covering them with their rifles. The wretches fell upon their knees and howled for mercy. While Deppingham was holding his wife's limp form in his arms, calling out to her in the agony of fear, utterly oblivious to all else that was happening about him, his two friends were swiftly disarming the groveling natives. Selim's knife severed the cords that bound Bobby Browne's hands. He was staring blankly, dizzily before him.

Ten minutes later Chase was addressing himself to the four islanders who, bound and gagged, were tied by their own sashes to trees some distance from the roadside.

"I've just thought of a little service you fellows can perform for me in return for what I've done for you. All the time you're doing it, however, there will be pistols quite close to your backs. Lady Deppingham is much too weak to take the five mile walk we've got to do in the next two hours—or less. You are to have the honor of carrying her four miles and a half, and you will have to get along the best you can with the gags in your mouths. Two of you form a basket with your hands. I'll show you how."

With Selim in the lead the little procession moved swiftly, but cautiously, through the black jungle, bent on reaching the gate if possible before the night lifted. Chase and Bobby Browne brought up the rear with the two reserve carriers in hand. Browne, weak and suffering from torture and exposure, struggled bravely along, determined not to retard their progress by a single moment of indecision.

In his heart Browne was now raging against the fate that had placed him in this humiliating, almost contemptible, position. He, and he alone, was responsible for the sufferings that Lady Agnes had endured. It was as gall and wormwood to him that other men had been ordained to save her from the misery that he had created. He could almost have welcomed death for himself and her rather than to have been saved by George Deppingham.

His wife! He could never be the same to her. He had forfeited the trust and confidence of the one loyal believer among them all. And now Lady Deppingham loathed him because his weakness had been greater than hers!

When he would have slain the four helpless islanders with his own hands Hollingsworth Chase had stayed his rage with the single, caustic adjuration:

"Keep out of this, Browne! You've been enough of a boulder without trying that sort of thing."

Tears were in Bobby Browne's eyes as mile after mile he blundered along, his heart bleeding itself dry through the wound those words had made.

It was still pitch dark when they came to the ridge above the park. Through the trees the lights in the chateau could be seen. Lady Agnes opened her eyes and cried out in tremulous joy.

"You've labored well and faithfully," Chase said to the panting islanders. "and I'm going to reward you. I'm going to set you free, but not yet. Don't rejoice. First we shall tie you securely to four stout trees just off the road. Just as soon as we are inside the walls I'll find some way to let your friends know that you are here."

He and Selim promptly marched the bewildered islanders into the woods. Bobby Browne, utterly exhausted, had thrown himself to the soft earth. Lady Deppingham was standing, swaying, but resolute, her gaze upon the distant friendly windows. After a long, tense moment of indecision she held out her hands, and Deppingham sprang forward in time to catch her as she swayed toward him. She was sobbing in his arms. Bobby Browne's heavy breathing ceased in that instant, and he closed his ears against the sound that came to them.

Deppingham gently implored her to sit down with him and rest. At last she said:

"I've made you unhappy. I've been so foolish. It has not been fun, either, my husband. God knows it hasn't. You do not love me now."

He did not answer her at once, and she shivered fearfully in his arms. Then he kissed her brow gently.

"I do love you, Agnes," he said intensely. "I will answer for my own love if you can answer for yours. Are you the same Agnes that you were—my Agnes?"

"Will you believe me?"

"Yes."

"I am the same Agnes. I am your Agnes. I am! You do believe me?"

He crushed her close to his breast and then patted her shoulder as a father might have touched an erring child.

At last she spoke: "It is not wholly his fault, George. I was to blame. I led him on. You understand?"

"Poor devil!" said he dryly. "It's a way you have, dear."

The object of this gentle commiseration was staring with gloomy eyes at the lights below. He was saying to himself, over and over again, "If I can only make Drusie understand!"

Chase and Selim came down upon this little low toned picture. The former paused an instant and smiled joyously in the darkness.

"Five men are near the gate," he whispered. "They watch so closely that no one may go to rescue those who have disappeared. Friends are hidden inside the wall, ready to open the gate at a signal. They have waited with Neenah all night. And day is near, sahib."

"We must attack at once," said Chase. "Quiet now!"

Five shadowy figures soon were distinguished huddled close to the wall below the gate. The sense of sight had become keen during those trying hours in the darkness.

The islanders were conversing in low tones, a word or two now and then reaching the ears of the others.

Suddenly a blinding, mysterious light flashed upon the muttering group. As they fell back a voice, low and firm, called out to them:

"Not a sound or you die!"

Four unwavering rifles were bearing upon the surprised islanders, and four very material men were advancing from the ghostly darkness. An electric lantern shot a ray of light athwart the scene.

"Drop your guns—quick!" commanded Chase. "Don't make a row!"

Paralyzed with fear and amazement, the men obeyed.

While the three white men kept them covered with their rifles Selim ran to the gate, uttering the shrill cry of a night bird. There was a rush of feet inside the walls, subdued exclamations, then a glad cry.

"Quick!" called Selim. The keys rattled in the locks, the bolts were thrown down, and an instant later Lady Deppingham was flying across the space which intervened between her and the gate.

The men were beside her a moment later, possessed of the weapons of the helpless sentinels. With a crash the gates were closed, and a joyous laugh rang out from the exultant throat of

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Rushville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Rushville cures are the proof.

Mrs. Ulysses Beaver, 120 Fifth Street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I feel that it is my duty to advise parents having children afflicted with kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. One of my children was troubled in this way and had but little control over the kidney secretions at night. Hearing of similar cases where Doan's Kidney Pills had effected cures. I procured a supply of the remedy at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s drug store. It brought prompt relief and convinced me of its great merit."

Hollingsworth Chase.

"By the Lord Harry, this is worth while!" he shouted. Outside the mad-dened guards were sounding the tardy alarm. The first gray shade of day was coming into the night.

He saw Neenah ahead of him, standing still in the center of the graveled path. Beyond her was the tall figure of a man.

"You are a trump, Neenah," cried Chase, hurrying up to her, "a Persian angel!"

It was not Neenah's laugh that replied. Chase gasped in amazement and then uttered a cry of joy.

The Princess Geneva, slim and erect, was standing before him, her hand touching her turban in true military salute, soft laughter rippling from her lips.

In the exuberance of joy he clasped that little hand and crushed it against his lips.

The Princess Geneva was standing before him, her hand touching her turban in salute.

"You!" he exclaimed.

"Sh!" she warned. "I have retained my guard of honor."

He looked beyond her and beheld the tall, soldierly figure of a Rapp-Thorberg guardsman.

"The devil!" fell involuntarily from his lips.

"Not at all! He is here to keep me from going to the devil!" she cried so merrily that he laughed aloud with her in the spirit of unbounded joy.

"Come! Let us run after the others. I want to run and dance and sing."

He still held her hand as they ran swiftly down the drive, followed closely by the faithful sergeant.

"You are an angel," he said in her ear. She laughed as she looked up into his face.

"Yes—a Persian angel," she cried. "It's so much easier to run well in a Persian angel's costume," she added.

MIDNIGHT ASSASSINS

Kentucky Farmer Called to His Door and Shot in Cold Blood.

Scottsville, Ky., Aug. 11.—John Simpson, a well-known farmer of the Amos neighborhood, was called to the door of his home at midnight by six masked men and shot to death. It is said the killing was the outcome of a suit instituted by a Mrs. Douglas to recover the custody of her children, in which action it is alleged Simpson took a prominent part in her behalf.

Night Riders Again Appear.

Brownsville, Ky., Aug. 11.—Masked men, styled "night riders" by the country people, wounded Harden Minton, a farmer, and took Andy Farris, another farmer, and two women, one named Belle Gross, from their respective homes near here and whipped them. Farris bore his whipping stolidly, but the women begged hard for mercy to no avail. In besieging Minton in his home, the band shot Minton in the leg. He may not recover. No reasons for the "correctional measures" are given.

TUSCOLA STANDS TO LOSE COURT HOUSE

Petition Prays For Removal of County Seat.

Newman, Ill., Aug. 11.—The names of more than 2,200 legal voters in this county appear on a petition which has been filed with the county clerk, praying that an election may be ordered for the purpose of voting for or against the removal of the county seat from the city of Tuscola to the village of Camargo, eight miles east. The court has given notice that a hearing on the petition will be granted September 6, and if the prayer of the petitioners is granted a special election will be ordered for November. The people of Tuscola declare they will take no organized steps to defeat the movement and may not be represented at the hearing of the petition.

Camargo is situated on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway, and is the geographical center of Douglas county and the original county seat. It is the same age as Chicago, but has a population of only three hundred. At present it is the home of the county fair. The citizens have tendered a choice of two valuable sites for a courthouse.

Tuscola has a population of 1,500, and is situated on the Illinois Central; Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, and Chicago & Eastern Illinois roads.

OLICE AT SEAS

Brutal Crime at Rochester, N. Y., Offers a Puzzling Mystery.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Neither the inquest into the murder of Anna Schumacher nor the search that has been continued by county and city police officers has afforded anything like a substantial clue to the man who assaulted and brutally killed the seventeen-year-old girl last Saturday near Holy Sepulchre cemetery. The opinion is generally entertained that the murderer was not a tramp, but someone familiar with the vicinity in which the crime was committed and who is now in the city or near it.

Better Than the Average.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Crop conditions in the United States on Aug. 1 were, in the aggregate, slightly higher than on Aug. 1 last year, and moderately higher than a ten-year average condition of all crops on Aug. 1, says the government crop report.

Dock Strike Leads to Bloodshed.

Fort William, Ont., Aug. 11.—Bullets flew here as a result of the dock strike. The police began a search of steamers for men in hiding and, on some of the men resisting, the police opened fire, wounding several.

GIRLS AS CHINESE TEACHERS.

Not Only Foolish, but Wrong, Says a Missionary From China.

The Rev. C. T. Studd, who has been engaged in missionary work in China for ten years, arrived at New York recently with his wife.

When told of the murder of Elsie Sigel, Mr. Studd was not surprised. "There is nothing strange that the Chinaman should kill his young teacher," said Mr. Studd. "It is not only foolish, but wrong, to allow young Christian women to teach male Chinese. It must always be remembered that the Chinaman has the idea that a woman has no soul. Let a young woman undertake to teach a Chinaman Christianity, and his opinion of her at once becomes lower. During my ten years in China I always taught the male Chinese, and when my wife was associated with me in the work her teaching was restricted solely to the Chinese women. A woman constantly faces danger when she undertakes to teach our religion to a Chinaman. The male Chinese has a bad temper, and when his passion is aroused there is no telling what he may do."

Dr. Studd went to New York from London to attend the conference of missionary students to be held at Northfield, Mass., this summer. He returned to London from the orient about a year ago.

SELLING OSAGE LANDS

Oklahoma's Last Indian Reservation Opened to Settlers.

GREAT NATIVE WILDERNESS.

Picturesque Hills and Prairies of the Osage Country Allotted in Severalty and Thereby Opened to the Influx of the White Man—How the Land May Be Sold.

If there are persons who love the Osage Indian reservation for its streams, its hills, its forests and its broad prairies and feel the charm of its history and traditions and look upon it as almost the last remaining expanse of native wilderness, they should hasten to look upon it, as the old things and the old ways are soon to vanish forever. The lands, to which the Osages have fee simple title, have finally been allotted in severalty and each Osage citizen has been given title to his allotment.

Old Villages Still In Use.

This does not mean that the Osages have abandoned their village camp life and are living on their individual lands. As a matter of fact the Osage lands generally are lying wild as they have since the beginning of time. Allotment, however, means the incoming of the white farmer with his industry and the turning of the grass grown, flower strewn acres into productive fields. Such lands as the Osage citizen cannot sell he will rent, and to that extent the entire reservation will be placed within reach of the white man.

There are 2,230 certified allottees in the Osage tribe, of which any one who failed to get his share of lands will be paid an equivalent in money. Each Osage has 657 acres of land. At first he was allowed to make three separate selections of 160 acres, any one of which he was permitted to designate as his homestead, to be inalienable for twenty-five years. Then he took a fourth selection of 160 acres, or a total of 640.

After the bestowal of all these riches it was found that there still remained untaken land of which the allotment commission made a per capita distribution amounting to seventeen acres.

Already white men are gathering on the horizon of the Osage country to spy out its resources and possibilities and real estate agents are opening offices in the different towns to engage in land traffic. It will be possible for an Osage citizen to sell all his land save his 160 acre homestead under certain conditions. He may rent all his land for grazing or agricultural purposes. The sale of his surplus land or that in excess of his homestead and amounting to 497 acres will be permitted in two ways.

Ways of Selling the Land.

One is that he may receive from the secretary of the interior a certificate of competency to manage his own affairs. For this certificate 175 Osage citizens have made application, of which twenty-eight have been submitted to the secretary of the interior, who approved twenty-five. The filing of applications will move more rapidly in a month or two, the secretary having asked that further applications be withheld until he has finished issuing the deeds to the surplus lands. All the homestead deeds are ready for delivery.

The surplus lands of the full bloods and the incompetents may be sold upon application if the secretary of the interior is convinced that the sale would be for the benefit of the owner.

The latter would be permitted to spend the money from the sale of his surplus lands only in such manner as would be approved by the commissioner of Indian affairs.—Pawhuska (Okla.) Cor. Kansas City Star.

CONTEST OF WORLD ANGLERS

Tournament to Be Held at Van Cortlandt Park, New York, in August.

The Anglers' Club of New York, under whose auspices the third international tournament of the National Association of Scientific Angling Clubs for fly and bait casters will be held, has perfected all the details for the event, which will be held at Van Cortlandt park, New York, on Aug. 19, 20 and 21. The headquarters for the contestants during the tournament will be at the Grand Union hotel. On the evening of Aug. 18 a meeting of the executive committee of the National association will be held, and on Aug. 21 there will be the annual business meeting of the association. The schedule of the tournament has been arranged as follows:

First Day—9 a. m., accuracy, quarter ounce; 1 p. m., distance, fly, with five ounce rods; 4 p. m., distance, quarter ounce, average of five casts.

Second Day—9 a. m., dry fly, accuracy; 11 a. m., accuracy, fly; 1 p. m., distance, half ounce, average of five casts; 4 p. m., distance, fly, weight of rods unlimited.

Third Day—9 a. m., accuracy, half ounce; 1 p. m., salmon fly; 2 p. m., surf casting with two and one-half ounce weight, average of five casts.

A special medal will be awarded for the longest cast made in each of the following events: Distance, quarter ounce and half ounce and surf casting.

Airship With Rowing Attachment.

An airship covered with waterproof canvas and fitted with propellers at its bow and stern, which will work like oars in water, is being built by an airship company in Cleveland, O. These strange appliances have been added in order to prevent it from sinking in case it should fall into water. The builder, Carl Bostel, says he expects to be able to carry from six to twenty passengers in the airship and will provide a compartment for baggage.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

MICHIGAN CITY GETS SURPRISE

Lid Suddenly Clamped On City by the Lak.

EXCURSIONISTS MUST GO DRY

Wide Open Sunday at Popular Resort

For Excursionists Stirs the County

Authorities to Action, and It Is Announced That Hereafter the Lid Will

Be Clamped Down—Warrants Issued

at Laporte Against Twenty-Seven

Offending Saloon Keepers, and There

Are More to Follow, It Is Said.

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 11.—Michigan

City saloon keepers were given a rude awakening when Constables John and Harr Walker, of this city, left for Michigan City with fifty four warrants against twenty-seven saloon keepers for allowing persons other than members of their families in their places of business last Sunday and for selling liquor last Sunday, contrary to law.

This is the first move to put a "lid"

on Michigan City, which has been wide open on Sundays, as a result of which thousands of excursionists have been attracted to the city every Sunday from surrounding cities. The open defiance of the law culminated last Sunday, when twenty thousand excurSIONISTS invaded the city and the saloons were wide open and did a land office business. Some of them even employed "barkers" to haul in the people. Since the "lid" was placed on Laporte, three months ago, from five hundred to a thousand thirsty Laporte people have gone to Michigan

City each Sunday to get their drinks, and this has caused much hard feeling here among the saloon keepers, who have contended that it is not fair for the saloons of Michigan City to be allowed to do business when the saloons of Laporte, which is in the same county, have been forced to close at night at 11 o'clock, and to remain shut all day Sundays and on holidays. The twenty-seven saloon keepers named in the warrants must come to Laporte to appear in court

Prosecutor Smith said today that

Michigan City would have the lid clamped down hereafter on Sundays and every infraction of the law would result in arrests being made.

MYSTERIOUS ATTACK

Brown County Woman Shot From

Roadside Ambush.

Nashville, Ind., Aug. 11.—While riding in an open buggy to Edinburg, Mrs.

Charles Dailey, fifty-four years of age,

was shot from ambush and seriously wounded.

As she approached a thicket near the roadside, Mrs. Dailey, who was driving a spirited horse, heard a peculiar noise. The horse became frightened and started to run away when a shot rang out. Mrs. William Chanders, who lives nearby, heard the shot and the screams of Mrs. Dailey. When she reached the scene she found Mrs.

Dailey unconscious. Physicians report

Mrs. Dailey in a critical condition, bullet shot from a shotgun having penetrated her back. The unfortunate woman has been removed to her home

eight miles north of Nashville.

Mrs. Dailey is not known to have had any enemies, and it is believed she was shot through a mistake in identity. Farmers formed a posse, but were unable to find a trace of the

would-be assassin.

Touched a Live Wire.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 11.—Bait

Wheeler of Huntington, a lineman employed by the Home Telephone company, suffered a fractured skull when he fell a distance of thirty feet.

Wheeler was at work on a pole and he accidentally touched a traction wire with his nippers. The shock Wheeler received knocked him to the ground.

Another Boy Drowned.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 11.—In view of four companions who had gone with him to spend the day at the resort,

Verne Jones, eighteen years old, was drowned in the waters of Sylvan lake at Rome City. The boys were diving after balls in the lake when Jones became cramped and exhausted and sank.

Suspensions of Incendiarism.

Wabash, Ind., Aug. 11.—This city suffered a fire loss of $75,000 when the school furniture factory and machine shop of Garcus & Rawley were practically destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown, but incendiarism is alleged. The insurance is only $35,000.

Fell From a Barge.

New Albany, Ind., Aug. 11.—Captain

William H. Wood, aged sixty-three years, and a familiar figure on the hulk decks of river steamboats all the way from Pittsburg to New Orleans, fell from a barge into the Ohio river here and was drowned.

Hanged Himself in Barn.

Martinsville, Ind., Aug. 11.—James

Hurst, a farmer who lived six miles northwest of this city, hanged himself with a halter in the mow of his barn.

There is no known cause for the deed.

Dr. W. W. Arnold, formerly of Union Township, Elected President of Hoosier Society.

OTHER NAMES FAMILIAR HERE

JUDGE W. S. Morris and E. P. Huff-erd, Formerly of This County
Are Also Officers.

The Gazette of Colorado Springs, Colorado, of last Sunday contains an account of the meeting of the Hoosier Association which stated that Dr. W. W. Arnold, formerly of Union township, was re-elected president of the association. Other former Rush county residents mentioned are Judge W. S. Morris, who practiced law here some years ago, and E. P. Hufferd, who is related to the Matlock family. The article from the Gazette follows:

Dr. W. W. Arnold of this city was Saturday afternoon re-elected president of the Hoosier association at the annual meeting and picnic at Stratton park. The other officers elected are as follows: W. C. Robinson, District Judge W. S. Morris and S. Wolf, vice presidents; A. F. Bridges, secretary; E. P. Hufferd, treasurer. A committee consisting of the officers and John R. Watt, a Colorado City attorney, was appointed to incorporate the Indiana association.

Mayor H. F. Avery delivered the address of welcome. Attorney Robinson and Judge Morris also spoke. Mrs. Paul Caldwell gave two recitations from Riley and T. E. Foreman recited Riley's "Never Talk Back." Dr. W. W. Arnold recited his poem on "The Indiana Banana." Covers were laid at the luncheon table for 175. The picnic was the most successful in the history of the association and afforded an opportunity for many Indiana residents to renew old acquaintances.

ARE FULL FLEDGED PHYSICIANS NOW

John B. Thomas, Harry VanOsdol and J. Everett Canada, All Known Here Are Successful.

EXAMINATION IS DIFFICULT

In the list of medical school graduates who passed the State examination for physicians' licenses are John B. Thomas, son of J. Q. Thomas of this city, Harry A. VanOsdol, well known in this city and J. Everett Canada, formerly of this city, but now living in Ft. Wayne. The examination is one of the hardest of its kind given in the United States, and the passing grades makes the men full fledged physicians.

The showing made at this examination is regarded as evidence of the value of the ruling made in 1903, that put the work of medical schools upon a higher grade. Although the effect was to lessen the number of graduates from the medical colleges, the result has been a gradually smaller number that have failed to pass the State examinations.

NO MAIL ORDER BUSINESS IN HIS

County Clerk Verne Norris Sends an Indianapolis Firm a Hot Reply to Letter.

WISHED TAXPAYERS' NAMES

Verne Norris, county clerk, gave an Indianapolis firm an awful set back and incidentally showed the right spirit toward Rushville. A firm there wrote to Mr. Norris, asking him to give the name of a man who would furnish a list of taxpayers of the county. Of course, the object of the request was plain—mail order business. Mr. Norris wrote the following across the bottom of the letter and returned it to Indianapolis:

"We have men here in the same business and we patronize home industries here."

TEACHERS HOLD DAY'S SESSION

Illustrated Lecture by Rosa R. Mickels on "I See" Was Well Received.

WILL CONTINUE TWO DAYS

The third day's session of the Rush County Teachers' Institute was well attended today. The program was carried out in every detail and proved to be the most enjoyable one of the meeting. The two addresses on the subjects, "Restoration" and "The Weathervane," by Dr. A. J. Kinneman were well received and appreciated by the teachers.

Mrs. Rosa Mickels also gave two lectures on "I See" and "I Hear." The first address was illustrated and proved to be very interesting. The institute will be in session two more days.
